North Glade 4-H Club News Madelyn McKnight, Reporter

The North Glade 4H Club met for its monthly meeting on Wednesday May 15th at the club building. During the meeting the clovers made a craft. Vice President Matthew Stoner discussed old business including vet checks performed in April, The Rose Hill Cemetery Cleanup, and Weigh In & Spring Show. New business was discussed by President Autumn Custer which included animal quality assurance that is due by July 1st, and she handed out cow patty bingo tickets and fair books to families. The club had special guest speakers Rebecca Frantz, and Casey Hayes from Farm Credit that discussed with members about what a loan is, the opportunities for youth loans at farm credit, how to prepare thank you cards, and how to write buyer letters. The club would like to thank both Rebecca and Casey for their time and great information. The next meeting will be held on June 19th at 6pm at the club building.
